English 10
Indian Horse chapters 1-10

On a separate piece of paper, discuss what you consider to be family. What is your definition of family and who fits into this? Explain your ideas with as many details as possible. Complete the self-assessment below and hand in with your response.

Evaluation: Thoughtfulness of response, specific examples provided; clearly-expressed and organized ideas   /10

Fully Meeting	Meeting	Not Yet Meeting	Insufficient
The composition is original and insightful. Product is well crafted, fully developed with examples and appropriate for the audience and purpose. Planning is evident and the composition comes together as a secure whole. The student has demonstrated confident control of the language elements and there are few mechanical errors. Those errors made are likely a result of risk- taking.	The composition is clear and thoughtful. Product is logical and straightforward and appropriate for the purpose with some awareness of the audience. Planning is evident and the composition seems complete. The student demonstrates control over language elements and techniques. Minor errors are noticeable but do not impede understanding.	The composition is satisfactory but unrefined. Product is not always clear or organized and does not show an awareness of audience or purpose. Less than adequate planning resulted in inconsistent development of ideas. Many errors result in awkwardness and/or obscured meaning. Frequent mechanical errors impede understanding.	The composition is unclear and unfocused. Product is difficult to follow. The purpose is unclear, and may be off topic. There is no evidence of planning. The composition shows an uncertain grasp of basic language elements. Sentences are incomplete, run-on or simple in structure. Numerous mechanical errors impede understanding.

self assess